

Speak Up About GOP Tax Plans

Voice your opposition to federal tax plans put forward by Republican leaders in Congress, which attack educators and threaten funding for public school students. These proposals amount to a $5 trillion tax giveaway to the wealthiest and corporations, paid for on the backs of working families and public schools.

In a press release last week, MEA shared specific impacts these proposals could have on public education, including the loss of the popular $250 tax deduction for educators buying supplies for their classroom and the loss of school revenue stemming from the elimination of state and local tax deductions.
